How to: scent a room
Glasshouse Fragrances' creative director Nicole Eckels' expert tips on using perfumed products

ASSESS YOUR SPACE A candle should scent a bedroom within 30 minutes. If your room is large or has enormous windows, then use more than one candle. A smaller space, like a bathroom, can be scented by a couple of fragrant body bars.

CHOOSE YOUR SCENT Want to come home to a fragrant room? Then try a diffuser which offers a lovely, lingering scent 24/7. They're also great at disguising unwanted smells - try a lemongrass diffuser in the kitchen to neutralise strong cooking odours.

DETERMINE ITS CHARACTER When it comes to the dining room, strong fragrances tend to interfere with the scent of the food, so keep things simple and subtle with fresh flowers.

Bag some style by replacing your green shopping bag with a cool, jute tote.
